I felt like I knew everyone in that scene . . .

The self-righteous older brother . . .

The broken penitent . . .

The curious onlookers . . .

Everyone, that is, except . . .

Behold, a voice out of the heavens said, "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased."

'Hypocrisy...' - August 17, 2022

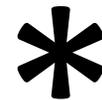

Yeast of the Pharisees

Hypocrisy- hupo + krinein (under judgement)

- I was a hypocrite not because I preached one thing and did another but because I preached one thing and believed another.
- I believed that my sin, my brokenness, was unforgiveable, unhealable, and unknowable.
- I had forsaken my first love...not mine for Him but His for me.
- I was addicted to porn, praise, and popularity.
- I have spent the last 15 years learning and embracing the truth that I am an heir, not an error.

Two Scriptures

- I Timothy 5:24 "The sins of some are obvious, reaching the place of judgment ahead of them; the sins of others trail behind them."
- Luke 12:1-3 "Be on your guard against the yeast of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy. ² There is nothing concealed that will not be disclosed or hidden that will not be made known. ³ What you have said in the dark will be heard in the daylight, and what you have whispered in the ear in the inner rooms will be proclaimed from the roofs."

We do, however,
have one example of how Jesus responded to a person caught in sexual sin . . .

"Neither do I condemn you," Jesus declared.
"Go now and leave your life of sin."

Who is, or could be, YOUR Nathan?

What is one
nagging sin you need to reveal
and release?

Part II Nuts & Bolts & Brains

I Corinthians 6:18

Flee from sexual immorality. Every other sin a person commits is outside the body, but the sexually immoral person sins against his own body.

But How?
I live in Corinth!

The Cycle of Addiction

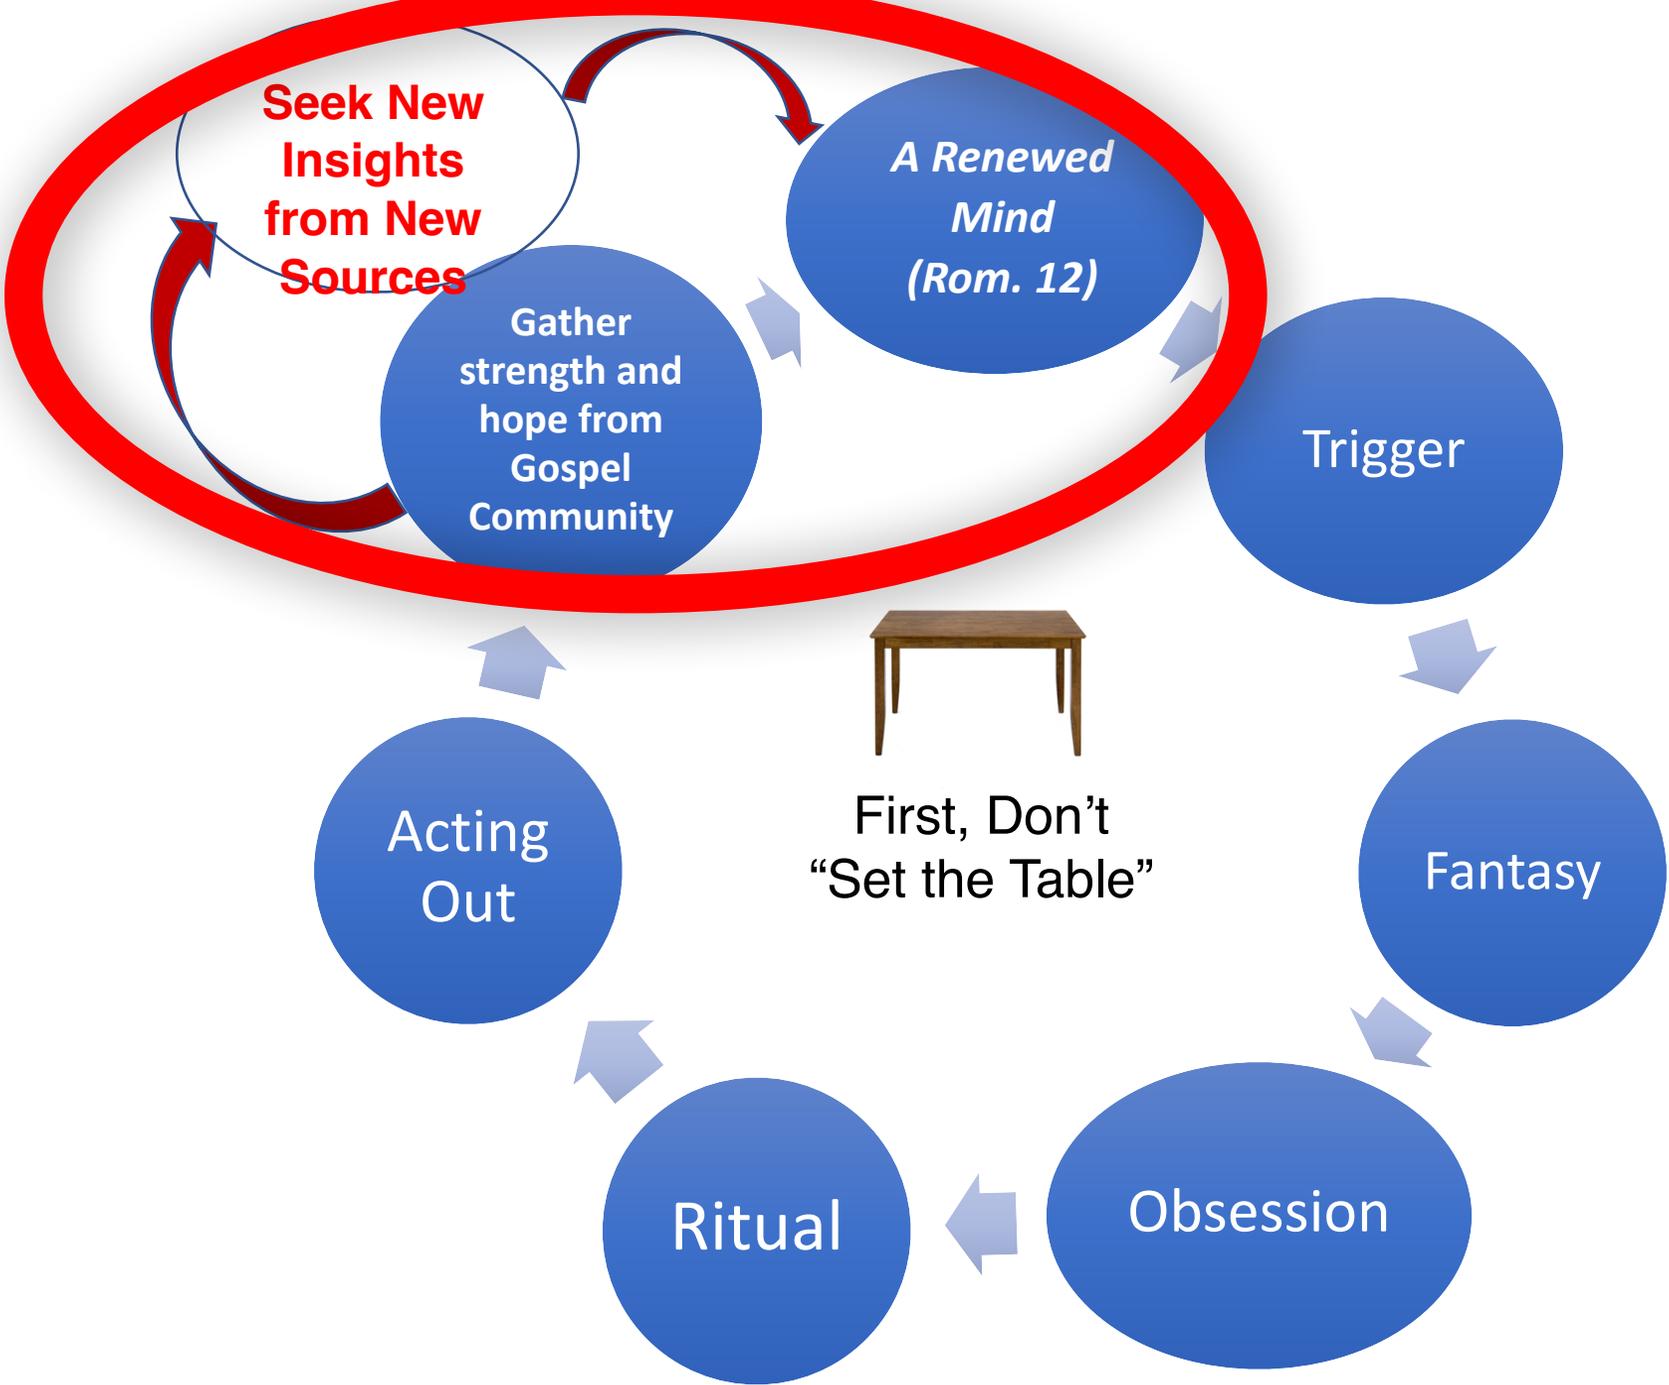

“Well,” said Pooh, “what I like best...” and then he had to stop and think. Because although eating honey was a very good thing to do, there was a moment just before you began to eat it which was better than when you were, but he didn’t know what it was called. – “Winnie the Pooh” by A.A. Milne

- From beginning to end, it about Boundaries
- "Good fences make good pastorate"

Only a fool has to learn from experience . . .

- Re: Parish programs . . .
- Is there filtering software on our office computers?
- Are we making common-sense, Gospel-centered (not shame-based or moralistic) information available to parents, teens and even pre-teens?
- Are we providing soft landings and safe havens to talk about these things from a Gospel perspective?

QUESTION: What is one practical thing you are going to implement in an effort to make yourself less vulnerable?

Limerence

“An involuntary interpersonal state that involves an acute longing for emotional reciprocation, obsessive-compulsive thoughts, feelings, and behaviors, and emotional dependence on another person.”

Ask yourself . . .

- Am I looking forward to seeing this person in the same way I used to anticipate seeing my spouse?
- Do I check my grooming in a special way?
- Am I telling him/her personal things I don't tell my spouse?
- Am I talking to him/her about my spouse?
- Am I keeping these meetings secret from my spouse?
- Am I giving or accepting gifts from this person?

Humility and Narcissism in Clergy: a Relational Spirituality Framework

Elizabeth G. Ruffing^{1,2}  • David R. Paine¹ •
Nancy G. Devor¹ • Steven J. Sandage^{1,2,3,4}

"Although clergy are typically expected to be humble, they often face numerous factors that may contribute to risks for narcissism, such as isolation, unrealistic expectations, and idealization."

The Two Little-Known Types of Narcissists

"Of the dimensions of narcissism reflected by the NPI (Narcissistic Personality Inventory), clergy scored highest on the Leadership/Authority subscale indicating an endorsement of social dominance, social boldness, warmth, and extroversion." Second only to politicians

Rule of St. Benedict 7:51-52 "The seventh step of humility is that a man not only admits with his tongue but is also convinced in his heart that he is inferior to all and of less value, humbling himself and saying with the Prophet: I am truly a worm, not a man, scorned by men and despised by the people."

Guilt vs Shame

- I did something bad—I am bad
- Develops later (3-6)—Develops earlier (<15 mo.)
- Rooted in behavior—Rooted in self-concept
- Can be forgiven—Cannot be “forgiven”
- Requires restitution—Cannot be propitiated
- Rooted in actions—Rooted in identity
- Not based in comparison—Based in comparison

Comparison is the thief
of joy.

Lord Jesus Christ,
Son of God,
have mercy on us,
sinners

Gracious Father, we pray for thy holy Catholic Church. Fill it with all truth, in all truth with all peace. Where it is corrupt, purify it; where it is in error, direct it; where in any thing it is amiss, reform it. Where it is right, strengthen it; where it is in want, provide for it; where it is divided, reunite it; for the sake of Jesus Christ thy Son our Savior. Amen.
