

University and 20-Something Ministry Coordinator

The River Anglican Church

The River Church, in Blacksburg, VA, is seeking to hire a University and 20-Something Ministry Coordinator. The ideal candidate will be an energetic, outgoing, self-motivated individual who thrives on building new relationships and connecting students and young professionals into the life of The River -- where discipleship happens via single-gender, multi-generational small groups. The Ministry Coordinator will seek to build on existing relationships and ministries within these demographics, as well as building new relationships, and working to engage the members of these ministries more and more into the life of The River.

Responsibilities:

- Meeting regularly with current and new University Students (undergrads and grad students) as well as 20-somethings in the area and building relationships.
- Creating age-specific events to build relationships within the ministry and to create opportunities for spiritual growth.
- Assimilating students and young professionals into The River's life of discipleship (Discipleship Groups, Life Groups, Men's/Women's Groups) and ongoing events (Socrates series, Home Away from Home, Sunday Service, service projects, etc).
- Attending ongoing staff meetings and periodic leadership retreats
- Agreeing with The River Staff Manual. Will report to the Head Pastor/Rector as direct supervisor.
- Recruiting new and recent grads to The River's Fellows program (due to start fall 2022).
- Overseeing ministry budgets for University and 20-Somethings Ministry as well as a personal expense account. Completing expense reports in a timely manner.

15-20 hours per week (may vary seasonally). Pay rate dependent upon education and experience. Immediate start available. Two-year commitment preferred.

Candidates will go through an interview process and background checks.

Send a resume and cover letter to Chris@TheRiverNRV.org to apply.
